By Faith, Moses...

What is faith?

1. The substance of things hoped for
2. The evidence of things not seen

By faith, Moses' parents were not afraid of the king's command.

By faith, Moses refused to yield to the world.

1. Moses refused to be called...
2. Moses chose to suffer affliction with...
3. Moses accounted the reproaches of Christ greater...

By faith, Moses forsook Egypt.

By faith, Moses kept the Passover.

By faith, the nation passed through the Red Sea.

1. Israel's danger was great.
2. Their deliverance was glorious.
3. The contrast – the lack of faith of the Egyptians

How about you?

Are you an Egyptian?

Do you live by faith?

How will faith-filled believers live their lives?

~ Pastor Mark D. Montgomery

Faith

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for,
the evidence of things not seen.

For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.

By faith Moses, when he was born,
was hidden three months by his parents,
because they saw he was a beautiful child;
and they were not afraid of the king's command.

By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt;
for he looked to the reward.

By faith he forsook Egypt,
not fearing the wrath of the king;
for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible.
By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

By faith they passed through the Red Sea
as by dry land,
whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so,
were drowned.
