Faith

Introduction

“hero”

By Faith, We Who Have Received the Promise

What is faith?

1. The substance of things hoped for
2. The evidence of things not seen

God has provided something better for us.

What is the author telling us?

Therefore, we also...

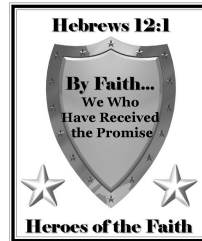

What should we do?

How should we do it?

1. Look unto Jesus.
Who is He?
What did He do?
What is the author telling us?
2. Consider Jesus.
“consider Him”

Conclusion – What will happen if we do what we should
with the proper perspective?

1. We will not become weary as we run the race.
2. We will not become discouraged in our souls.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for,
the evidence of things not seen.

And all these, having obtained a good testimony
through faith, did not receive the promise,
God having provided something better for us,
that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses,
let us lay aside every weight,
and the sin which so easily ensnares us,
and let us run with endurance the race
that is set before us,

looking unto Jesus,
the author and finisher of our faith,
who for the joy that was set before Him
endured the cross, despising the shame,
and has sat down at the right hand
of the throne of God.

For consider Him who endured such hostility
from sinners against Himself,
lest you become weary and discouraged
in your souls.
