

Don't worry! Be righteous!

Are you trusting in your good God?

AM Service

Proverbs 13:21-25

March 26, 2017

Introduction

“poverty”

“prosperity”

General Principle – Righteousness brings divine blessing, and evil brings divine cursing.

The Big Idea – God is good all the time.

Don't worry! Be righteous!

21. Trouble will chase the sinner.

“evil”

“pursues”

“sinner”

What is the point?

What is the contrast?

Summary -

1. The destruction of the sinner is unavoidable.
2. God will prosper the righteous.

22. A good man's estate lasts.

a. The estate of a good man

1. A righteous man will be blessed with prosperity.
2. He will have a proper perspective of his money.
3. He will willingly give his money...
4. He will spend his money reasonably...
5. He will save his money strategically...
6. He will train his children to properly handle money...
7. He will give praise to God for all his blessings.
8. Even if he doesn't have much worldly wealth...

b. The sinner's wealth may go to the righteous.

23. A small estate may be improved by hard work.

a. A small estate may be improved by hard work.

Lesson – The man who digs doesn't need to beg.

b. A righteous society has an obligation to protect the assets of the poor.

James 5:1-8

1. The pending judgment of the rich wicked
2. The witness of their wealth
3. The condemning cry of the poor
4. The arrogant smugness of the rich wicked
5. The poor exhorted to be patient until the coming of the Lord

24. A loving parent is willing to discipline his child.

“spare”

“rod”

“hates”

“loves”

“disciplines”

“promptly”

Biblical Perspective

Proper discipline produces a wise child.

Discipline must have the right motivation.

25. God supplies the physical needs of the righteous.

Conclusion

Don't Worry! Be Righteous!

Are you trusting in your good God?

~ Pastor Mark D. Montgomery